

Readership:

230,000*

Circulation:

62,749

Published every Thursday, The Herald's Commercial Property Section delivers pages of reports and news and brings the latest in developments and trends as they impact on the industry in Scotland. The Herald remains Scotland's leading commercial property advertising medium – so reserve your space in this quality publication for the chance to reach a discerning and unique audience.

Why Choose The Herald?

The Herald is Scotland's leading quality daily newspaper. Its highly respected and authoritative journalism has been informing the nation for 225 years and the daily broadsheet is the newspaper of choice for Scotland's politicians, business and professional classes.

81% of The Herald's readers fall into the ABC1 socio-economic category; the country's elite, attracted by the newspaper's unique blend of Scottish, national and international news, features, property and supplements targeted at a discerning audience.

Reader Strengths...

- Carrying 40.3% of all Scottish commercial property advertising volume.
- The Herald has 35,000 more readers in Scotland than The Scotsman – 117,000 Herald readers read no other daily newspaper.

Online & Internet...

- The Herald newspaper and Herald Online together reach an unduplicated audience of 914,261 (on a monthly average).
- 47% of our readers are in managerial/professional positions.
- 88% of Herald readers use the internet – they are 23% more likely to use the internet than the average Scot.
- 35,000 Herald readers who are internet users would like to set up their own business one day.

To advertise with us, please contact
Tom Law on 0141 302 6171 or email
tom.law@heraldandtimes.co.uk

Sources: *NRS Oct 07 – Sept 08; ABC Nov 08;
NMR Medialog Nov 07 – Oct 08; Herald Online Survey 08;
ABCe Apr – Jun 08; TGI Apr 07 – Mar 08

